Subject of the Disclosure
PLDT CORE BUSINESS AND FUNDAMENTALS REMAIN VERY STRONG AMIDST CAPEX CHALLENGE
Background/Description of the Disclosure
The highlights of the disclosure are as follows: <ol style="list-style-type: none"><li>1. EBITDA for 2022 on track to hit P100B, to remain unaffected by the capex overrun</li><li>2. Expected 2022 telco core income of P32.6-33B in line with guidance</li><li>3. Dividends for full year 2022 anticipated at P134 per share, consisting of regular and special dividends of P92 and P42, respectively</li><li>4. Pangilinan welcomes PSE confirmation of no insider trading of PLDT shares in respect of 16 December 2022 disclosure</li><li>5. No fraud, no anomalies, no evidence of overpricing, and no unrecorded transactions in relation to the overrun</li></ol> In a Special Briefing held on December 21, 2022 at Dusit Thani Manila, PLDT Inc. (PLDT) top management led by Chairman Manuel V. Pangilinan, President and CEO Alfredo S. Panlilio, and Chief Legal Counsel Marilyn A. Victorio-Aquino, assured the audience present, consisting of fund managers, investment analysts and bankers, that PLDT's business overall remains healthy and robust even as it continues to address its elevated Capex spend and undergoes a comprehensive process review. Pangilinan said in particular that PLDT's EBITDA for 2022 will remain unaffected by the Capex overrun and is on track to hit P100B as originally indicated, with telco core net income expected to reach between P32.6B to 33B as guided. In addition, PLDT expects to be able to pay the balance of the regular dividend for the full year 2022 estimated at P45 per share; and the remaining special dividend of P42 per share. This would bring total dividends for 2022 to P134 per share or 88% of 2022 expected earnings. According to Pangilinan, PLDT's ongoing review thus far has uncovered no fraud, no anomalies, no evidence of overpricing, and no unrecorded transactions in relation to the overrun. "The bulk of the P48B Capex overspend involves the procurement of network equipment necessary to provide stronger connectivity to subscribers, specifically 5G cell sites for our mobile network and fiber rollout. There will be no write-off of these assets," Pangilinan said. When asked about the context within which the overspend was made, Panlilio explained that a confluence of factors occurred, including: PLDT having to regain network leadership following years of underinvestment in Capex; the threat from former President Rodrigo Duterte for telcos to shape up; intense competition in

the telco sector with the then anticipated entry of DITO funded by China Tel, as well as the emergence of a competitor in the fiber space, Converge. Finally, the occurrence of the COVID-19 pandemic and the resultant lockdowns and quarantines, which required the installation of speedy fiber connections in millions of households for work and school, pushed network teams to fast-track rollouts. “However, to the extent of the Capex ordered, we plan to reduce fresh Capex starting in 2023. Thereafter, we expect Capex to reduce steadily. 2023 will be a year of consolidation as we continue to strengthen and grow the business. We strive to be better”, said Panlilio.

Atty. Victorio-Aquino added that the negotiations with vendors are ongoing, while simultaneous reviews of network project monitoring and process flows are being undertaken with a view to improving them. “Rest assured that we will provide additional disclosures in due course. What we want to avoid is premature disclosure, that could harm the public shareholders”, she said.

No fraudulent trading prior to disclosure

Pangilinan was asked after the briefing to comment on the statement of Philippine Stock Exchange (PSE) President Ramon Monzon earlier in the day that the PSE does not see any indication of any fraudulent trades prior to the disclosure. In reply, Pangilinan said that he “welcome(s) this bit of good news from the PSE” and added that “this confirms that no insider trading occurred in respect of last Friday’s disclosure.”
